

Agnes Sims Studstill

November 11, 1915 - October 14, 2017

Agnes Sims Studstill passed away Saturday, October 14, 2017 at home in Madison, FL.

She was born on Nov 11, 1915 in Madison, FL where she lived most of her life.

She started a lumber mill business in Madison with her husband, Howard Studstill, which they grew into the Studstill Lumber Company. She continued running the business after her husband passed away until 1981 when she sold it and retired. She was a life long member of the First United Methodist Church of Madison serving as its treasurer for decades. She was also an active member of the Audrey Newman Circle and the Madison Women's Club. She was preceded in death by her husband of twenty-three years. Howard Studstill, her parents, Guy and Clare Sims, two brothers, Guy "Mac" Sims and Carl Albert Sims, Sr., two sisters, Alice Sims and Willie Clare Copeland, and one nephew, W. C (Frances Copeland III.

She is survived by three nieces, Clare Sims Hart, Agnes Sims, Page Hite and Durlie Sims Barati, and four nephews, Guy M. Sims II, Carl A. Sims, Jr., Hunter M.Sims, and Howard R. Sims. She is also survived by eight great-nephews, one great niece, and numerous great-great nieces and nephews. All of whom she delighted in.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the building fund of the First United Methodist Church of Madison or to your favorite charity

Visitation will be at 10:30 Tuesday, at Beggs Funeral Home in Madison, fl followed by the Funeral service at 11:30 also at Beggs Funeral Home. Burial will be at Oak ridge Cemetery.