“ June,\n\nI'm so sorry to hear about Shane's death. My heart goes out to you. I've been thinking about you ever since I heard and want you to know that I hope one day you will find some peace. I can't imagine anything worse. \n\nThe bond we had in our younger years are still there in times like this. \n\nI would have liked to do something more personal but haven't been able to find your number or address. \n\nFran White
