“ Dear Family of Mr. Wetmore. Memories of life are so precious. My memories of Mr. Wetmore began at Wesson and continued through Richards 1967. Great teachers and leaders are never forgotten. He was also a great mentor to many. I was thrilled to reconnect after so many years through Facebook. Prayers of comfort and peace through the grace of our Savior Jesus Christ. Up Dixie!! “ Mr Wetmore was more than just a teacher to his students. He was kind, caring, funny, and whatever he needed to be to get your attention to receive the best education from his class. Mostly, he was loving. He loved teaching, the interaction with students, and the way he was loved by his students. It would be easy to go on, but if you knew Mr Wetmore, nothing more needs to be said. We love you and will miss you always. R.I.P. Up Dixie

“ My sincerest condolences to the family. We, at the NFCC library, will truly miss Mr. Wetmore. I feel immense sadness walking by the bench where he used to sit reading the Wall Street Journal, but I know he is still with us making sure we are "doing our job". He was part of our library family and he was loved.\n\nLynn

“ Ruth & Jennifer I am so sad to hear of Dales passing. I first meet him at Richards when my children were there. He was always so helpful and helped me anyway he could.

\n\nJennifer spent time with one of my daughters. So I got to know him outside of work. \n\n\nYou and your family are in my prayers. \n\n\nVirginia(Dixon) Smith
