“ I just learned of Mr. Grant's passing. I am so sorry for the loss suffered by his entire family. I have fond memories of going to their house with Cheryl(way bak in High School), and he always called me the "Blonde Bomber". Many years have past since then, but I will always remember that and my prayers go out to his sweet family.\r\nMy deepest sympathy,\r\nBonnie Sisk

“ Donald was a great, yet humble man in many ways. I will always remember his pride in his children and the fact that he would always say Carlyen should get the credit for them. I enjoyed 10 years employed by him at Napa and working for him. That is where I met the loving Carlyen who would help me get statements sent out and his hard working son Billy (hard working so he could get to the golf course). He will always be remembered.\r\n\r\nCindy

“ My heartfelt condolences to the family for your loss. I have fond memories of growing up in the neighborhood and always being welcomed in the Grant's home. Mr. Grant called me "Steveverino", which my mom liked so much she used it for many, many years. May he rest in peace...
