Douglas Eugene Dixon, 74, passed away on Thursday, January 14th, 2021. He was born on July 13th, 1946, in Lee, Florida, to Leroy Dixon and Sadie Dixon.

After graduating high school, Doug joined the U.S. Army where he proudly served in the Vietnam War. Doug was a skilled farmer and a jack of all trades. He was gifted with the ability to engineer, design, and build everything from farm equipment to buildings. He was a generous man that loved working the land and sharing the bounty of his efforts. Doug was a witty front porch conversationalist to his many friends and neighbors. A character that was larger than life, he will be missed.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Leroy Dixon and Sadie Dixon, and his siblings, Vera Rudd, David Dixon, John Dixon, and Irving Dixon.

“Doug was a true and caring friend to me. Never to be forgotten. My house burned down about 4 weeks ago. Doug brought me clothes and food and a gas burner to cook on. I really appreciated that. He and Wag used to stop here at Madison Builders and have coffee and talk politics. I will miss him.
