

FRANCES DUGGER BROWNING

August 6, 1928 - January 20, 2017

Madison: Frances Dugger Browning, 88, passed away in Madison, Florida on January 20, 2017.

Graveside services are planned for Saturday, February 4, 2017 at 11:00 AM at Oak Ridge Cemetery in Madison.

She was born in Vienna, Georgia on August 6, 1928 to F.M. and Margaret Everett Dugger, and grew up in Tampa, Florida. She graduated from Plant High School, attended Florida Southern College, and Florida State University.

She met her husband, Robert Hunter Browning, Jr. (Bob) while they were students at Florida State. She and her family lived in Madison, FL before moving to Tallahassee in 1972. She was a member of the DAR, Tallahassee Women's Club, Madison Women's Club, Madison Garden Club, and a member of the Mary Martha Circle at First United Methodist Church in Madison. She was a member of First Presbyterian Church in Tallahassee.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, and a son, Robert Hunter Browning, III.

She is survived by her daughter: Lisa Browning McCullough (Walter) of Madison, FL; two grandsons, Tom McCullough (Lauren) of Waycross, GA, Travis McCullough (Erin) of Gainesville, FL; two Granddaughters: Lauren Browning and Elizabeth Browning of Vero Beach, FL; one great grandson: Kove McCullough, of Waycross, GA.

The family would like to express their sincerest appreciation to the staff at Good Samaritan Center at the Advent Christian Village, staff at Madison County Memorial Hospital, and Big Bend Hospice staff.

Beggs Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements 850-973-2258.

Tribute Wall

RB

“ May God bless and welcome Fran in joining Bob, Hunter, and so many family nod friends into heaven. And, may Lisa, Walter and family find peace and serenity in the many warm memories of Fran's loving life.\r\nOur thoughts and prayers are with Lisa and family in this time of grieving.\r\nLove,\r\nBakers of Tally

Richard Baker - February 03, 2017 at 05:36 PM

SF

“ Lisa and family - my deepest sympathies on the passing of Fran. Your parents and Hunter were always favorites of mine and now they are all in heaven.

Steve Friedlander - February 03, 2017 at 01:26 AM

SM

“ I am past president of the Woman's Club of Tallahassee and am sorry to hear of Mrs. Browning's passing. I'm sure her time in Madison and Dowling Park was comforting to all of you, to be close to her. Blessings to your families and peace.

Susan McLeod - February 02, 2017 at 08:33 PM