

Mr. George Johnson Jr.

October 13, 1955 - October 7, 2023

Brother George Johnson was born to Junius Mitchell and Rosa Tyson on October 13, 1955 in Madison County.

Preceding George in crossing from his walk of life were both parents Junius and Rosa; brother Leroy Davis, sister-in-law Johnnie Mae Davis, brother-in-law James Weatherspoon, and a loving niece Voncille Tyson Mattair.

George accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior and attended Architillery Baptist Church in Madison Florida.

He was educated in Madison County School District and graduated with his high school class. Afterwards, he joined the United States Army where he received various awards. After George's military service, he graduated from North Florida Junior College where he received Certification as a Nursing Assistant.

George loved riding horses and motorcycles throughout Madison County and also advancing his karate skills. He had such a radiant smile and loved joking and making others smile and laugh, He was so full of laughter and loved to jokingly trash talk. He created a special bond with his family and friends because of his loving, caring, and kind spirit.

Cherishing the special memories of George Johnson are his two loving children Teddrick Johnson and Kalisha Johnson; 3 grandchildren Ja'waun Carter, Jurnee Tyler-Hayden and Phoenix Johnson; brother James Tyson (Linda) sisters Lucille Tyson, Maggie Weatherspoon Burks, and Jeanette Henderson (T.J.) girlfriend Catherine Cherry and countless number of loving family and loving friends.
