“ Stephanie and Family, I am so very sorry for the loss of your husband, father, grandfather, uncle, and friend. I am truly sorry I can not be there in person today to help honor Ty's life and give you all support. However, know that each and every one of you has been and will continue to be in my prayers! I pray God gives you strength, peace, and comfort. I pray your memories and the knowledge of the love he had for you carry you through the tough times as you learn to navigate this life without him. My sincere condolences to each of you! Donna Hester

“ My name may not appear on your obituary, but yours will be forever written on heart. Through the tears, I have relived a lifetime of memories in a day. Whenever life threw curveballs, you were always there to guide me, hug me and make me laugh, whether I was 8 or 48. Thank you for raising me to have values, morals and most of all integrity. I will miss your stupid jokes and your dancing in front of the refrigerator, but most of all just knowing you were there when life got tough. I will be by soon with a candy bar. I love you, Dad.

“ I will always remember the prankster, when I was a staff nurse at Hamilton County Hospital and he was on duty there with any inmates that we may have had on the floor at that time, he could lift my ink pen out of my pocket and I would not even notice it until I was back at the nurses station and needed it to make notes. Went on to work with him lots of years with the Florida DOC and considered him a true friend. I will miss him. Susan Pinkard
