

James Carroll Agner

March 21, 1922 - November 12, 2014

Madison, Florida; James Carroll Agner, Age 92, died Wednesday November 12, 2014 at his home.

Funeral Service will be November 15, 2014 at Beggs Funeral Home Chapel. Interment will follow at Barbara Memorial Cemetery with full military Honors.

Mr. Agner was born in Madison County Florida. He was a Veteran of World War II where he served our Country with great distinction having earned five Battle Stars. He was part of the Normandy Invasion, and he fought in the Battle of the Bulge. Among the medals he received were the Good Conduct Medal, the EPO Medal, and three yellow bars.

Mr. Agner was an ordained Minister for 12 years in Madison, Florida where he was Pastor of the Madison Church of The Nazarene and Barbara Memorial.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Kitty Agner, three sons, James, C. Agner, Jr., Willie Agner, and Melvin Agner, a daughter, Carolyn Agner, and four brothers, Robbie Agner, Paul Agner, Samuel Agner, and Walter Agner, three sisters Mildred Agner, Shellie Durant, and Joyce Williams all of Madison.

T. J. Beggs, Jr. & Sons, Madison, Florida (850)973-2258.