“ Cindy, you will see your daddy again in that great gittin up morning. The scripture that provides comfort is Revelations 21:4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

“ My mom was JB's first cousin. During much of my childhood I was blessed to be apart of the family since I spent so much time with them. I witnessed JB's hard work and faithfulness to his family and the Lord. He loved to pick and aggravate, making sure we all laughed. He learned I loved a puzzle printed in the Tampa Tribune. When my mom died he started to cut them out and periodically mailed them to me in bundles. My mom has been gone 28 years. I received a bundle just a few months ago. He has cared enough to do this for me all these years. He was faithful to God, and family. I miss you JB. I love you.

“ JB was quiet sometimes but when he did speak up it was usually to tease someone, always making people smile and laugh. Mostly I will remember how FAITHFUL he was, to his family, church, and his Savior Jesus Christ! What a legacy he left ❤️🙏 I'm so thankful I knew him. Prayers for Anna, Gail, Cindy and Jame.
