I just wanted to let everyone know how great of a man our dad was. If you knew or met him he would probably be telling you about our God. Then he would ask if you were serving our Lord.

When we were small dad seemed like a huge man that had all the answers. When he was older he did not seem as big to me but his wisdom in the Lord was greater as well as his love for the Lord. Dad's second love was our mom who he adored with all his heart and they were married for 68 years.

He enjoyed phone calls from sales people and would keep them on the phone for long periods. Of course there was no sale.

If he seen or heard of something that needs fixing he would commit himself totally. His favorite response was "I won't quite until I get to the bottom of this." Believe me there would be no stopping unless he was satisfied.

I can see him in heaven saying I will get to the bottom of this. Dad enjoy your new home in heaven you deserve it.
