“Recalling General Thomas J. 'Stonewall' Jackson's final words: "Let us cross over the river, and rest under the shade of the trees". To all the Granger family and friends, may Almighty God usher peace and comfort to each of you. The love that you shared with Jeffery was evident from the first time that I met him and his love for all of you was clearly obvious too. I knew him as a robust and life filled person. As his beautiful video tribute conveyed, he used 'his time'. His quick and natural smile was contagious to all who saw and felt it. Let his memory continue to comfort your hearts and soften your grief. He is in a Holy place where time has never existed and it is illuminated by the Author of all Things. He is reunited with those who went before him and walks forever in unison with life.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences and my most earnest respect. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers in the days to come.....
