

Mrs. Josephine C Agrillo

November 13, 1943 - March 16, 2024

Josephine C. Agrillo, 80, passed away peacefully on March 16, 2024, at Lafayette Nursing and Rehabilitation in Mayo, Florida. Josephine was a longtime resident of Sebastian, Florida.

Born in Mountain City, Tennessee, Josephine was the daughter of Kyle and Mabel Gentry. After completing her education, she embarked on a remarkable career path that led her to serve at the White House under First Ladies Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and Lady Bird Johnson.

Josephine is survived by her sister, Linda Rhyne, and her son, Eric Agrillo. She will be deeply missed by her family and all who knew her. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Lafayette Nursing and Rehabilitation in Mayo, Florida.

Tribute Wall

EA

“ Josephine C. Agrillo, 80, passed away peacefully on March 16, 2024, at Lafayette Nursing and Rehabilitation in Mayo, Florida. Josephine was a longtime resident of Sebastian, Florida.

Born in Mountain City, Tennessee, Josephine was the daughter of Kyle and Mabel Gentry. After completing her education, she embarked on a remarkable career path that led her to serve at the White House under First Ladies Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis and Lady Bird Johnson.

Josephine is survived by her sister, Linda Rhyne, and her son, Eric Agrillo. She will be deeply missed by her family and all who knew her.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Lafayette Nursing and Rehabilitation in Mayo, Florida.

Eric Agrillo - March 22, 2024 at 09:23 AM