“ Audry and I enjoyed the visits of Uncle Lew especially at Christmas time. He really enjoyed our Christmas parades. He would ride in the vehicle pulling the float. I also appreciate the coordination of phone calls to check on Audry this year. Him and the aunts would sing to Audry. He really kept the family connected. I remember when he would also call Sunday afternoons and the sisters and family would all spend time talking (mom) (Sue) loved these calls and looked forward every week to this. Enjoy heaven with (mom) Sue and Audry.

“ I enjoyed the last few years getting to know him since he moved back to Madison. I was learning to plant seeds and then transplant them into the garden for delicious fresh vegetables! And I learned you can put anything in homemade bread!! I will miss his zest for life. Rest with the Lord Uncle Lew.
