

Mrs. Lois Casey Brisbin

October 6, 1938 - April 14, 2025

Mrs. Lois Casey Brisbin, age 86, went to be with the Lord on April 14, 2025, in Dowling Park, Florida in the loving embrace of her family.

Lois was born in Atlanta, Georgia, and was the second child of John Wilmer and Myrtle Brown Casey. She graduated from New Albany High School in 1956 as the class valedictorian and was awarded a Ford Scholarship for her academic achievements. Lois pursued her education and her dream of starting a family, accepting a proposal for marriage to the love of her life, George Herbert Brisbin Jr, in 1959. They welcomed four children into the world: John, George Allen, Ruth, and Rachel.

Lois lived a life devoted to service. She completed her four-decade career as a Registered Nurse in 2002, ran a significant food ministry for 17 more years in Portsmouth, Virginia, and was recognized as a Bon Secours Senior Hero.

She and George moved to Dowling Park in 2019 to join the Advent Christian community there. She maintained a lovely vegetable garden and became an active member of the Women's Home & Foreign Missions Society.

Lois is farewelled by her loving husband George H. Brisbin Jr; her children, her brother Richard Casey; seven grandchildren; much extended family and a great many beautiful friends.

A Celebration of Life Service was held on April 21, 2025, at The Advent Christian Village Church, Dowling Park. In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Crisis Pregnancy Center of Tidewater, <https://cpcfriends.org/>
