

Margaret Ann Brown Miller

April 14, 1950 - May 7, 2016

Madison: Margaret Ann Brown Miller, age 66, died Saturday May 7, 2016 at home.

A Celebration of Life service will be 5:00 PM Saturday, May 14, 2016 at 550 Boggy Bay Rd. Greenville, FL 32331.

She was born in Quitman, Georgia and lived in Jacksonville during the 60's and 70's. She moved to Missouri in 1978 and back to Greenville last year. She loved to sew, bake and spend time with her dogs. Her favorite quote was "Put your big girl panties on and deal with it."

She is survived by 2 sons: Evans Sevor (Ashley) of Greenville and Ken Sevor of Willow Springs, MO; 1 daughter: Amy Blair Clark (John) of Rosharon, TX; 2 brothers: Walter Brown Jr. (Debbie) of McAlpin and Edward Brown (Cindy) of Greenville, and 8 Grandchildren.

She was predeceased by her parents: Walter Kenneth and Wanda Brown, husband: Jerry Miller and granddaughter Abby Sevor.

Donations may be made to any organization in her name.

Tribute Wall

FB

“ I only knew Margret when she was a very small child, but knew her parents and grandparents. Her favorite saying, sounds SO much like her Grandmother Ethel and her Mom Wanda, it made me smile! :)

Frandy Baggett - May 21, 2016 at 01:50 PM