

Marguerite Annette Mixson King

April 16, 1942 - November 17, 2014

Marguerite Annette Mixson King

Marguerite Annette Mixson King, 72, of Madison, Florida, died November 17, 2014, at UF Health Shands in Gainesville, Florida, after a brief illness. Born in Williston, Florida, she was predeceased by her parents, Charles and Marguerite Mixson of Lake City, Florida. She is survived by her husband of 53 years, Lawrence Ferrell King of Madison. Also surviving are two daughters, Jeri Ann King of Charlotte, North Carolina, and Happi (Richard) Cook, of Thomasville, Georgia, and two granddaughters, Madison and Camille Cook, also of Thomasville. In addition, surviving are two sisters, Cynthia (Bob) Hawkins of Cumming, Georgia, and Mary Flo (Patrick) Hunter of Oakwood, Florida.

Annette was a wife and mother first. She loved her family and she will be deeply missed. She also loved her flowers, cooking, playing bridge, and her beloved pets.

Visitation with the family will be at Beggs Funeral Home on Friday, November 21, from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, November 22, at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Madison, Fla. At 11 AM. The Reverend Joe Boyles, Vicar, St. Mary's Episcopal Church will be officiating. Beggs Funeral Home of Madison, Fla., will be handling the arrangements. Beggs Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements 850-973-2258

You may send your condolences to the family by visiting our website at www.beggsfuneral.com

Tribute Wall

LM

“ Dear Family,\r\nI have just heard of Annette"s passing.....just this moment....and I simply wanted to say how sorry I am for the loss you have all experienced.....Annette is in my earliest memories as a child.....she was always so very, very kind. Love to each and all of you.

Linda Mixson - March 10, 2015 at 11:43 PM