“ Uncle Marlin,\r\n\r\nYou were a wonderful and caring uncle and the most unselfish man I've ever know. I only wish I would have thanked you more for your generosity over the years. You and Aunt Evelyn helped me in ways I could never repay. You are loved and will be missed terribly.

“ I have always heard the stories of Marlin Grier when he was in the US ARMY 101st Airborne during WWII. I vaguely remember him as a small child when we would come to Madison FLA to see our cousins, I did get to meet him once as an adult at a reunion in GA.\r\n\r\nA true American Hero, pay of the greatest generation we will ever know. Marlin Grier survived WWII and the Battle of Bastogne, you will be missed, your watch is over. Good Bless and Rest in Peace.
