

Mrs Naoko Florence Tanguay

June 11, 1932 - November 22, 2020

Mrs. Naoko Florence Tanguay, age 88, from Jasper, Florida passed away on Sunday, November 22, 2020. She was born in Osaka, Japan on June 11, 1932.

She was a member of St. Theresa Catholic Church in Jasper, Florida. She loved to cook and feed everyone who was around her. She loved people and was very family oriented. She was full of life and energy and always had a smile on her face. She loved keeping up with family and friends on Facebook sharing photos, comments and recipes. She also communicated regularly with her family in Japan via video chat. Prior to her retirement, she was employed by the Hamilton County School System in Jasper, Florida where she worked in food service. Before moving to Florida, she worked at Bonny Eagle High School in Standish, Maine and Sebago Mock in Westbrook, Maine for many years. Through the school systems, she gained an extended family of faculty, staff and students who still kept in touch with her regularly. She loved being around everyone, making them laugh and smile.

Naoko was preceded in death by her parents, and her brother, Yoshiteru from Japan.

She is survived by her sister, Masako from Japan her husband, Robert Tanguay, (Bob), two sons, Robert (Cathy) Tanguay, Jr. of Jasper, Florida,

James V. Tanguay,
(Sharon) of Madison, Florida, one daughter, Naomi Silver (John) of Lake Park,
Georgia; seven grandchildren: Pamela Brown, Jason Tanguay, Robert Tanguay III, Tammy Brown, Scott Tanguay, Eva Clark, and Tiffany Silver. Ten great grandchildren: Marissa Sargent, Michael Tanguay, Joshua Richardson, Nellie Tanguay, C. J. Sargent, Thomas Brown, Kaylee Tanguay, Noah McKee,

“ Nikki, you definitely made getting through Bonny Eagle a lot more fun. I have really fun memories of the “treasures” you’d find in the girls bathroom...lots of laughs. I can still hear you saying “You gonna get it!”... Rest in peace my friend...Hope Meserve

“ I have very fond memories of Naoko when she lived in Maine. Especially when they had the camp. My mom and dad came up from Arizona and we all stayed at the lake. Those were the good old days. I know she's in Heaven now with my mom and dad. Rest in peace Naoko you've earned it. Love Ronnie (Jean) Stephens

“ The Tanguay Family have found memories of your mom and dad. My parents, Maurice & Barbara loved your family. I have fond memories of your mom sewing shoes by the lake, telling stories, her fabulous meals, and her contagious laughter. My heart is sad, but face smiles thinking of her beautiful personality. With love, June “Tanguay” Lentz, oldest daughter of Maurice’s

June Lentz - November 24, 2020 at 10:22 AM

Thank you for that, June.
