“ Dad! You will forever be my #1 man. You raised me and Roxann to become amazing woman and mothers and I can honestly say I wouldn't be half the MOM I am today if you were not the most amazing DAD in the world. I love you and miss you dearly. I find myself looking for you or jumping up to check on you. I know the last few years were the hardest on you and very trying, and as much as I wish you could have stayed in this world with me I know that you are in a better place and soaking up all the time with Grandma Beacom. Until I get to see your smiling face again and the goofy looks you use to make just to make me smile. I love you daddy. RIP”

“ In memory of my brother,
I guess I will start with growing up with Pat.
As kids we were both different as day and night. I loved horses and he loved to sit and put model cars together. When we had company over, he would always lock his bedroom door to protect his models. Every year we would to our grandparents home in Pennsylvania for vacation and there was celebration of Bicentennial Days in which Dwight David Eisenhower was there as a speaker.
Our grandfather was newspaper reporter and Pat followed him around that day. Well, guess what, he wiggles him way up to the podium and then met the President. He made nationwide news!!!
And another day and time Pat drove Paw Paw's car down through the woods until a stub stooped him. Guess what, he made the news again! Those are just a few outstanding memories of my brother Pat.

Love and miss you

To my Uncle Pat, Even though we have lost touch through the years, I will always remember the day you got your tattoo on your wrist, the days of me driving your Vette sitting on phone books when you were too intoxicated to drive.. lol I was like 8 years old.. lol. I remember enjoying weekends staying with you as you partied at your place in Clearwater by the St. Pete airport. There are so many more memories even when I was younger living in Virginia. I'm sure you are now rejoiced with Max the dog as well as the rest of our family. I am proud to have been your nephew. Thank you for the fun times and the memories I will always cherish. Love you Uncle Pat.
