“ Robert & Jordan, I am so sorry to learn of the passing of your sweet wife and mother. I was in the Lent Bible study with all of you at St. John Catholic Church. Terri seemed to be such a loving, giving person. I know all of your family are deeply grieved. I pray so much for you that God gives you His peace which passes all understanding and that He will heal your hearts. And yes, may you find comfort in knowing that she has joined her loved ones whom she dearly missed. Jordan, I lost my own mother not too long ago. I know you have suffered a great loss and are very grieved. Please keep praying and looking to Jesus for all your comfort. That's what I did and it really will help you. Jesus is with you wherever you go and He will always be there for you. And your mother is safe with Him also. I will continue praying for you and your family to find the peace and strength that you need. Love & Prayers to all of you.

“ I am SO heartbroken...Terri was such a good friend and a very good person. One of the very few people I have ever known that I can truly say the world was a better place because of her. My life will certainly never be the same, and I will always remember her.
