“ Voncile has adorned her wings. She has taken her flight to be with Jesus. Wow !!! She fought a good fight and she kept the faith. All of her weeping, crying, pain, shortness of breath and suffering are over now. Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning, Voncile's joy came May 3, 2022, RIP my niece. “ Mrs. Voncile was one of the nicest neighbors we ever had... She always took the extra step to make sure Momma and Daddy always had what they needed.. She looked out of us kids, growing up... She was always asking how we were. Even when we grew up and moved away, she always asked about us. When Daddy passed away, she made sure Momma was ok and made sure she was taken care of.. She was one of the sweetest people that I ever met. R.I.P Mrs. Voncile... You will be greatly missed... Until we meet again...

“ I can remember the first time I met her a few years ago and she never made me feel as though I were a stranger. She made me feel welcomed and told me I could have a seat at the foot of the bed. When visited at the nursing home, she still acknowledged me and treated me just as well. These memories will always be cherished and I will always appreciate the kindness. To family and friends, rest assured as an angel has earned wings. Voncile T. Mattair...may you sleep in peace. Not goodbye but goodnight. With love Crystal Berry 🙏
