

Mr. William G. "Bill" Taylor Jr.

June 27, 1944 - December 8, 2024

William G. Taylor, Jr. "Bill," 80, of Madison, Florida, passed peacefully in his sleep on December 8th, 2024. Born on June 27th, 1944 in Madison, Florida, he was a devoted husband and loving father.

Professionally, he was a high school math teacher at Madison County High School, an electrical engineer for Hughes Aircraft Company, a parole officer at Madison Correctional Institute, and a State of Florida probation officer. Additionally, he was a Navy Veteran.

He is remembered by former math students as a teacher who would stay after school on his own time to help struggling students. This benevolence was a mainstay of how he was seen by others in all areas of his life. The man was truly the type who would give you the shirt off his back in order to help others. With a sense of humor as dry as dust, he was admired and loved for his gentle nature and generosity.

He is preceded in death by his wife of fifty years, Faye Chancy Taylor; his mother, Dorothy Lane Reaves; his stepfather, Manley Reaves; and his father, William G. Taylor Sr. He is survived by his oldest son, Craig (Dawn) Taylor; his youngest son, Keith Taylor; three grandchildren (Dixon, Peyton, and Wesley Taylor); and his brother and sister, Jim (Melody) Taylor and Barbara (Wayne) Hudson, respectively.

A graveside service will be held at Concord Baptist Church at 2:00 PM on Friday, December 13th, 2024. All who would like to attend are welcome. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to The Parkinson's Foundation or The Micheal J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson's Research.
